Ruth Taylor's Accomplice Will

Plead Guilty To-morrow. Alfred Clapham, father of Donald Clapham, who was accused and indicted with Mrs. Ruth Taylor Conlin for breaking into several cottages in Sea Cliff and stealing articles which were pawned in New York, appeared at the Mineola Courthouse yesterday and said that when the case against his son was called te-morrow a plea of guilty would replace that of not guilty, entered at the time of the arraignment.

County Judge James P. Nieman will be asked to be as lenient as possible. Mr. Clapham said that he did not know what course Mrs. Conlin would take. Her plea is not guilty.

He did not plan to have his son enter the navy, he said, although he believed that the discipline would benefit him. Mr. Clapham declared he would do everything possible for his son. If the young man pleads guilty he will not be allowed to join the navy.

Sleepy Vermonters Show President the Way Without Recognizing Him.

Windsor, Vt., June 26 .- While Presdent Wilson was taking a long automobile ride with members of his family to-day, three employes on his private car were busy putting out a fire in a frame house near the siding, which caused intense excitement in this small New England town. The President, himself an honorary member of the On the train, also, according to the Gulfport, Miss., fire department, as a result of his part in extinguishing a fire there in 1913, expressed pleasure Scandals Said to Have when he heard of the work of the men.

President spent a quiet and uneventful day. He remained at the "summer White House" working on some correspondence this morning, and late this afternoon went automobiling through the beautiful Connecticut Valley to Hanover, N. H., and White River Junction, Vt. He was accompanied on the ride by Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, Miss Margaret Wilson and Dr. Cary T. Grayson. Miss Helen Woodrow Bones and "Baby" Sayre remained at Harlakenden House.

During the ride the President and his party got lost several times, and Mr. Wilson three times called to natives along the roadside and asked the way. In no instance did the men show any sign of recognizing him.

The detectives say that when Thaw began to beat the boy he made an outcry and ran screaming from the room to his father, who hurried back with him to Thaw's room in time to find corroborative circumstances of the youngster's tale. In some way, however, that matter was hushed up. There was no arrest, and the incident was not at that time called to the attention of the college authorities.

As a result of it, however, Thaw had to find rooma elsewhere, and went to live at Quincy Hall. For about a year he lived there without getting into open trouble. But there began to be talk, and finally, it is said, there was an attack on three boys, one of them the son of the janitor of the house.

FORRETIREMENT IS PARIS RUMOR

Blamed for Inaction and Heavy Losses Among Troops at Front.

ASQUITH SOUGHT TO AVERT BREAK

Went to France to Make Final Appeal, but Commander Was Obdurate.

Paris, June 17 (correspondence of The Tribune).-Field Marshal Sir John BERLIN SILENCES French, the much praised commander of the British army around Ypres, is likely soon to find himself kicked upstairs and out of the way, following the recent precedent in Lord Kitchener's case, according to reports from the front. Following the British custom, it is predicted that there will be as little scandal as possible and that it will be postponed till the last possible moment, but an announcement is expected shortly that Sir John's health has given way and that he has received Every effort, it is reported, has been made to prevent this. #### Dissatisfaction at Front.

As a matter of fact, the disorganiza-tion, factionalism and "every man for himself" attitude which has prevented the sending of adequate supplies from England, forced a crisis in the Cabinet and now is showing itself in the bitter fight against Lloyd George's efforts to get the factories to work, is fully re-flected at the front. Not only in France, but at the Dardanelles, the trouble has been felt, and there are whispers that Sir Ian Hamilton, the commander on Gallipoli, will soon be called on to ex-plain why the death roll has been so heavy and progress so slight.

And now it is gradually coming to light that there were disputes between French and Kitchener other than that about shells—disputes in which French is not so well supported as he was on the munitions question. Chief of these, and the one on which opinion is most evenly balanced, is that of the use of the new army.

Differences with Kitchener.

French wishes to use the new troops

French wishes to use the new troops as drafts to fill gaps in the ranks, ar-guing that the green men will be steadier if they take their baptism of fire supported by veterans. Kitchener, exceedingly proud of his new force and believing them the equal of any now in the field, wants the new army used as units, keeping the formations and offi-cers with which they have been trained. French refused to give way so Kitchener and so the new army is, for the most part, useless at present.
On the other hand, the most serious

BERLIN WARNED ANSWER TO U.S. MUST BE FRANK

America Wants No Delay, No Evasion, Gerhard Tells Officials. Berlin (via London), June 27, 4:18

m .- It is learned that Dr. Anton Meyer-Gerhard's report to the officials charged with drafting the German answer to the American note indicated the serious nature of the situation. Dr. Meyer-Gerhard was sent to Berlin by the German Ambassador at Washington to indicate to the German government the real attitude of the American government and people. He reported that the sentiment in the United States had been growing somewhat more favorable from the German count of view and particularly more point of view, and particularly more favorable regarding the prohibition of the export of munitions of war to the Allies.

The sinking of the Lusitania, however, undid all this. The state of feeling in the United States at the present time, he explained, was such that it would not be satisfied with unnecessary delay in the answer, nor with an answer which appeared to be evasive or failed to meet the issue squarely.

Kaiser Said to Have Transferred Troops for Fresh Attack on Polish Capital.

London, June 26 .- The Russians, continuing successfully to hold their lines along the Dniester, after a sixday battle have defeated the Austro-Germans at Kozara and Rudzany, northwest of Halicz, according to Petrograd. At Martinowo (Martynoffstany?), the report says, a similar attempt to gain a foothold on the Russian side of the river bank failed, and Grand Duke Nicholas's troops captured 40 officers and 1,700 men

At Kosmierjine the Austrians were repulsed on June 2 and 23, after having previously been defeated at Snovidow, and were driven across the Dniester, fighting a rearguard battle and losing heavily. These reverses have caused a German concentration in the vicinity of Kosmierjine, and new and stubbornly contested battles are imminent.
